Serial Numbers of Those Registered in Bates County

ALPHABETICAL COMPILATION OF NEW "RED INK" NUMBERS BY TOWNSHIPS

It is important that each man subject to the draft familiarize himself with the serial number which has been given his name on the registration list by the County Registration Board under orders from Washington, and in order that those interested may have ample opportunity to secure this information we have made a compilation of these new "Red Ink" serial numbers alphabetical by townships to the end that the new number given any name may be found at a glance. This, together with a comprehensive abstract of the Government's bulletin on the draft may be found below.

RULES FOR DRAFT ANNOUNCED BY WAR DEPARTMENT

Claims for Exemption Will Be Passed on by Local and District Boards, With Final Appeal to the President

Information for men registered under the selective draft is contained in a bulletin just issued by the War Department. It covers in detail facts with which those subject to draft should be familiar, and is as follows:

Local Boards—In every county in the United States and for every city of over 30,000 there are one or more local exemption boards. Each of such boards is in charge of the registration cards of persons registered in the area over which the board has jurisdiction, and has jurisdiction of all claims for exemption except those based on industrial grounds. Find out what board has your card and where the office of that board is.

District Boards—In every federal judicial district there are one or more district boards having appellate jurisdiction over a number of local boards and having original jurisdiction of claims for exemption on industrial grounds. If you intend to make a claim on industrial grounds, including agriculture, learn what district board to apply to.

Red Ink Serial Numbers—Every board has numbered the cards in its jurisdiction with red ink in a series running from 1 to the number representing the total number of cards in its jurisdiction. Lists showing the names of persons in the jurisdiction of each board and the red ink number of each card are open to inspection at the office of each board.

Inspect the list and inform yourself of your red ink serial number.

Order of Liability—These red ink numbers are to be drawn by lot to determine the order in which registered persons are to be called by the various local boards. As soon as the drawing is complete lists showing the order in which these red ink numbers are drawn will be published in the press and will be posted at the office of each local board.

Go to your local board and find out the order in which you stand for call.

Call for examination—As soon as quotas are assigned to each state and each board, each board will call upon persons whose cards are in its jurisdiction instructing them to present themselves for examination. This call will be posted at the office of the local board, and the papers will be requested to print it. A notice will also be mailed to you, but the posting of the list at the office of the board will be deemed sufficient notice to charge you with the duty of presenting yourself. The law therefore makes it your duty to inform yourself when you are called, but if the latter never reaches you, you cannot make that an excuse.

Watch the lists at the office of your board and see when you are called for examination.

Physical Examination—You must report for physical examination on the day named in your call.

(a) If you are a citizen of the United States, you must report for examination on the day named in your call.

(b) If you are a resident alien, you must report for examination on the day named in your call.

(c) If you are a subject of Germany, whether you have taken out papers or not.

(d) That you are a resident alien who has not taken out first papers.

(e) In addition to claims for exemption on any of the following grounds, which are the only grounds for discharge by a local board:

1. That you are the father of a motherless child under 16 dependent upon your labor for support.

2. That you are a brother of an orphan child or children under 16 dependent on your labor for support.

3. That you are a member of any well recognized religious sect or organization organized and existing May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbade its members to participate in war in any form and whose religious convictions were against war or participation therein in accordance with the creed or principles of said religious organization.

These are the only grounds for exemption or discharge by a local board.

Another person can file a claim in your behalf, but must use different forms in filing the claim.

Ten days after filing claim to file proof. Your claim of exemption or discharge must be filed within seven days of the day on which notice to you that you are called was posted and mailed. But after you have filed your claim for exemption or discharge you have ten days within which to file proof.

The method of proving claims is very simple, but it is rather exact. If you follow the rules given below you will have done what is required of you.

1. Go to the local board and consult the regulations to find out the form number of the affidavits that you must submit for your particular claim.

2. Ask the board for the blank affidavits that are necessary in presenting your proof; if the board has not the forms, ask to consult the pamphlet of forms.

3. Have the affidavits properly accomplished and return them to the board within the time limit assigned you—ten days from the filing of your claim.

Remember:

(a) You must submit your proof in the prescribed form and the board has no authority to exempt or discharge you unless you submit all the affidavits required by regulations.

(b) There will be no argument before the board and no proof other than the prescribed affidavits unless the board calls for further proof, which it will do in only a limited number of cases.

Every claim for discharge or exemption will be decided by the local board within three days after your affidavits have been filed.

If your claim is allowed a certificate of exemption or discharge will be issued to you.

Remember:

(a) This certificate may be recalled at any time.

(b) If it is temporary or conditional, it becomes of no effect when the time or the condition named are fulfilled.

(c) You have been drawn for military service and when the condition that has postponed your posting to the colors ceases you may be recalled at any time.

(d) Remember that your case may still be appealed to the district board by the government and on this appeal your certificate may be withdrawn at once. When so withdrawn you stand precisely as though you had been selected for military service by the local board.

Adverse decisions on claim—If your claim is disallowed by the local board your name will be certified and sent by the local board to the district board as one who has been called for military service and not exempted or discharged. Within two days thereafter, if practicable, a list of those so certified to the district board will be given to the press, with a request for publication, will be posted in the offices of the local board accessible to the public view, and notice will be mailed to the address on your registration card.

Therefore, if you have filed a claim for exemption and proof in support thereof, watch the notices in the office of the local board, beginning about five days after you have filed your proof, to see what disposition was made of your case and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

How to make claims to district boards—Claims of appeal may be made by a person within ten days after the day when notice has been served and mailed that such person's name had been certified to the district board by the local board.

2. Get or copy also Form 151 or 152 for notifying the district board of appeal.

3. File your claim of appeal (153 or 154) with the local board.

4. Send notice of appeal (Form 151 or 152) to the district board.

5. Do this within 10 days from the day when notice that your name was certified to the district board was posted and mailed.

Remember:

1. You can only appeal the final order of the board exempting or discharging or refusing to exempt or discharge you. You cannot appeal other orders or action of the local board.

Proving your appeal—You have five days after the district board receives your notice that you have filed a claim of appeal in which to file evidence additional to that filed by you in the local board, but all such evidence must consist of affidavits.

Decisions on appeal—The decision on your appeal must be made within five days of the closing of proof, and you will be notified by mail of the action of the board on your appeal.

Claims for discharge on industrial grounds—Only the district board can receive claims for discharge on the ground that you are engaged in industry, including agriculture found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment, the effective operation of the military forces, or the maintenance of national interest during the emergency.

Such claims must be filed with the district board on or before the fifth day after the mailing and posting of notice that you have been certified by the local board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

If you desire to file such a claim:

1. Get a copy of the local district board Form 161 or 161a.

2. Fill the form out properly.

3. File it with the district board within five days after the mailing and posting of notice that your name has been certified from the local board to the district board.

See Section 44, Regulations.

Proof in support of industrial claim—Only affidavits can be used in filing proof before the district board of a claim for exemption on industrial grounds. All such affidavits must be filed within five days after the filing of the claim.

Decisions of district board on industrial claim—Within five days after the closing of proof in any industrial claim the district board must decide the claim.

If the decision of the district board is in favor of the claim the board will issue a certificate of discharge. If the decision is against the claim the district board will so notify you.

Remember that you have been called for military service and that the certificate of the district board is only conditional on your remaining in the kind of industrial service on account of which you were discharged. No such exemption shall continue when a cause therefor no longer exists and your certificate of discharge may be withdrawn or modified by the district board at any time that the district board shall determine that the circumstances require it.

Appeals of industrial claims to the President—Only decisions of district boards on industrial claims for discharge can be appealed.

If you desire to appeal the decision of the district boards to the President, you may do so within seven days of the date of mailing to you of the decision of the district board.

To perfect your appeal:

1. Get or copy from the district or local board Form 163.

2. Fill out the form and file it with the district board.

3. Do this within seven days after the mailing of notice to you of the decision of the district board in your case.

How you will be notified that you have been selected for military service—As soon as your case is finally disposed of, the adjutant general of your state will notify you by mail that you have been selected for military service.

Your local boards will post a list of all persons selected for military service in a place at the office of the local boards, accessible to public view. The local board will also give lists of persons selected for military service to the press, with requests for publication.

Notice that you have been selected for military service will not necessarily order you into service.

Notice to report for military service will come when the government is ready to receive you.
